WEEKLY REPUBLICAN-1917
 DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER-1916

MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1916.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

WE GET IT

Maysville Will Be the Meeting Place of the 1917 Convention of the Kentucky State Sunday School Association—Heat Ashland by Three Votes.

Somerset, Ky., October 6.—It is a majority of three votes Maysville was selected over Ashland as the meeting place next year of the State Sunday School Convention.

The first session of the convention, held at the Christian Church last night, brought out a big crowd and the church building was filled to overflowing before the hour for commencement.

The welcome address was delivered by Mayor J. L. Waddle. President Quinn delivered the response to the welcome address. He was followed by General State Secretary George A. Joplin who delivered an address on "The Spirit of 1916," wherein he briefly related the splendid work done in Kentucky during the past year and spoke of what was expected during the ensuing year.

The principal address of the evening was delivered by Marion Lawrence, international secretary, on "Qualifying for Service."

Dr. Charles D. Bulla made a telling address at the morning session on "Organized for Service." W. J. Vaughn, field worker for the State association also spoke on his work.

At the session tonight Dr. Marlow Lawrence delivered a powerful address on "A Greater and Better State." He was followed by Dr. W. A. Gannfield, of Centre College, who spoke on the subject, "Training for Citizenship."

The State officers and Pulaski County officers of the association were entertained at dinner at the high school building this evening by the women of the city.

It is very likely that the matter of election of officers of the association for ensuing year will come up some time tomorrow. While no intimation has been given by the delegates it seems likely that Huston Quinn, of Louisville, will be re-elected.

The convention will be in session daily, morning and evening with the exception of Sunday morning, until Sunday night, the final session being held Sunday night. All the prominent speakers in attendance will occupy pulpits in the various churches of the city Sunday morning.

WORLD'S SERIES STARTS TODAY

Boston, October 6.—This city, the home of winning world's series baseball teams, awaits the opening of the 1916 classic tomorrow, between the Brooklyn Nationals and the Boston Americans, with the calm confidence that comes from faith in its paying representatives and the unbroken string of victories in past contests. The optimism and fighting spirit that the Brooklyn club and its accompanying band of supporters brought to town tonight added interest to the impending struggle for the premier honors of the diamond, without shaking in the least the faith of the local fans that the Red Sox would triumph over the invading team from Greater New York.

This confidence is reflected in a score of ways and in every portion of the city as well as throughout New England. In baseball debate and wagering it crops out time and time again until it would appear as if there was not in all of this section one American League rooter, who even considered the possibility of defeat. While the betting tonight is 10 to 7 on the Red Sox, with but little Brooklyn money in sight, the average supporter of the Boston Americans, despite his confidence, is far from predicting a walk-over for the winners of the American League race.

GET BAD FALLS

Willis and Edwin Martin, sons of Mr. C. E. Martin had very narrow escapes from serious injury yesterday afternoon when they suffered bad falls on the Wadsworth quarry. The boys with another lad were climbing up the side of the cliff when Willis, who was ahead, stepped on a stone that gave way he falling to the ground. His brother in attempting to follow him to the ground also slipped and fell. Both boys were cut and bruised, Willis being cut on the legs and head and Edwin on the head.

NOTED SPEAKER

Hon. Warren G. Harding, U. S. Senator from Ohio, Will Address the Voters of This County and City on October 16 in the Courthouse.

The Republican Campaign Committee of Louisville has supplied Maysville and Mason county with another Republican speaker. United States Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio will address the voters in the Courthouse on Monday, October 16.

The Republican party is making great efforts to carry Kentucky this fall and to this end they are putting the best speakers possible into the campaign in this state. And Kentucky is rallying to hear such orators as Morrow, Harding, Borah and many others of the noted speakers of the country.

Senator Harding has been recognized for the past several years as one of the great statesmen of the country. In 1912 he presented the name of President Taft before the Republican Convention in Chicago for re-election, by that party. At the last convention he was elected temporary chairman as such sounded the key note for the 1916 campaign and later permanent chairman and for some time was considered as a possible nominee by the G. O. P., being one of the "favorite sons." Since the nomination of Hughes as standard bearer for the Republican party he has taken the stump for the candidate and it is counted as one of the real big men in the country. Wherever he has spoken he has not failed to present his convictions in a very clear manner and to doubtless convince many of the futility of voting for the re-election of President Wilson.

Every Republican and voter in the county should be present to hear Senator Harding. The address will be held in the evening and all will have an opportunity to come and hear him. Although he has never spoken in this city before, he will undoubtedly draw a very large crowd as his reputation as a speaker is nationwide. Following him, Edwin P. Morrow will keep the Republican cause fresh in the minds of the people. Other speakers may possibly be secured before the election but they will be announced later. Special seats reserved for the ladies at the speaking of Senator Harding.

MORE BAD LUCK

The contractors, Vastine, Nolund & Lowrey, are certainly having their share of bad luck these days. Compelled to get a new concrete mixer on account of accidents to the old one, they are now delayed by an accident to the new one. No complaint can be made however at the rate they are now working. The street will be entirely finished and opened from Commerce street to Union by next Saturday.

NOTIFYING HOG PEN OWNERS

The local police are busy notifying the hog pen owners in the Sixth Ward that they will be compelled to remove their hogs from the city limits on account of their being a nuisance to the public health and welfare. Action will be taken against those who have not removed their hogs by Monday. The Board of Health feels that it will ultimately cause the removal of all hogs from the city.

MRS. ANNA BLAND

Mrs. Anna Bland, wife of James Bland, died at her home in Shannon Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. She is survived by her husband and two sisters, Mrs. C. M. Bland and Mrs. John Wehmer of Colorado. The funeral will be held Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock from the late home. Burial will be made in the Maysville Cemetery.

NIGHT SCHOOL OPENS MONDAY

Complying with the requests of many desirous of taking a course in stenography and bookkeeping, the night school will be opened in the High School building on next Monday night at 7 o'clock. Prof. William Jones, the head of the commercial department of the High School will have charge of the school. He expects to have a fairly sized class.

YELLOW ROOT GOLD MINE

Tom Carver of Kinnelonick, was in town Thursday with 10,000 yellow root seed which he raised in partnership with Charles Hammond. They find ready sale for these seed at $1.00 per thousand, having shipped 10,000 last Thursday to a party in Sheboygan, Wis. Mr. Carver says they will harvest 400,000 more seed this fall and will also dig about 1,000 pounds of the root, which is now selling at $5.00 per pound. Some gold mine, that.—Vanceburg Sun.

Dies of Delirium Tremens in the County Jail Last Night—Brother Died Twenty-Four Hours Earlier.

Henry Stockelman of Cincinnati, brother of George Stockelman, who died at the county jail yesterday morning, died in the battle last night after having seen the wonders of the earth in countless shapes and sizes.

Henry and George Stockelman came up from Cincinnati last week to work as plasterers on the Washington School House. They were somewhat under the influence of liquor upon their arrival but instead of getting sober they became worse. They were quarantined in their boarding house in Washington by the use of a drug and then brought to this city by Constable William Goggin, being placed in jail. George was found dead in that institution yesterday morning by Jailor Ellet. The condition of his brother was regarded as serious and he was turned over to a doctor's care but medical care did not seem to have any effects upon the phantoms passing before the man and he also succumbed. Relatives of the men have been informed of their untimely death and the bodies removed to the morgue in Coughlin & Co.'s undertaking parlors. Yesterday Coroner Slack received word to ship the body of the first man. They were apprised of the death of the second this morning.

"The Home of QUALITY Clothes"

News of Interest to Everyone

Nowadays we read a great deal in the papers about the high cost of woollens, the scarcity of dye-stuffs, and the rise in labor—which is all true, and must necessarily effect the price of clothes.

But we were one of the new houses in the Ohio Valley who were fortunate enough to have made the bulk of our fall purchase during the early part of 1916, which enables us to sell you goods at the same old price as you paid last year. Many houses are obliged to raise their prices, but we are not, and are going to give you the benefit of our early purchase.

All of our new Suits, Overcoats, Shoes, Hats and Furnishings are now in—all dependable merchandise, up to our high standard of quality—and the prices are no higher than last year.

ANOTHER WORD FROM A PROGRESSIVE

In this crisis I am supporting the Republican ticket because I believe the foundation of the Republican party to be such that I should support it.

As Lincoln said, this government is and must be a government of the people, for the people, and by the people. During the crisis, the United States should have a government of sufficient stability, and of sufficient virility, so that at all times it shall mean something to be an American.

I am proud to be an American, and I want it to mean something. I don't want the American age and American diplomacy to be a joke among the other nations of the earth. And so far as Progressivism is concerned, I look upon it as an ideal and tendency, rather than an organization.

The formation of the Progressive Party was really a domestic affair. The party was formed because this country had reached the time to clean up its house. While we had the house-cleaning under way, a world-wide conflict shook the foundation of the house itself.

If we are now to take our destined place among the nations of the world, the loyalty and the desire for service on the part of the average man in America must be aroused. We don't want it to be aroused by a terrible national catastrophe and the ruin involved. And so primarily, I am supporting the Republican national ticket because its foundation is right. I am frank to say that I do not regard all the details as yet right.

We have been house-cleaning, and now are going to fix the foundation and then go on with the house-cleaning.

In Maine we had a Republican victory—not what it should have been, because we did not begin in time to conserve the liberal element. Colonel Roosevelt's coming into the state, followed by the Republican candidate for President, aroused enthusiasm, and got out a tremendous vote. Men forgot the petty issues; forgot factionalism; forgot local issues; and voted on straight-out national lines.

In short, the Maine election epitomized the need of a national point of view as the dominant need and issue in this campaign. Upon it depends the soundness of America and American policy in the critical years before us.

It is comparatively useless to put in new electric light fixtures, to paper and paint the house, or be liberal with interior decorations at a time when the foundation of the building is going out from under it.—Halbert P. Gardner, Maine.

EAST END SPEEDWAY

As was predicted with the building of the improved street through the East End of our city, very little attention would be paid to the speed limit for vehicles. While East Second street is only partially completed as far as Union street, allowing approximately two-thirds of the total width for vehicles and street cars, rendering at times a very congested condition. On several occasions within the past few days, automobiles have far exceeded the speed limit prescribed by Council. While we admit this section is very tempting to the average driver for a spin, and in most cases it is not done with the intention of violating the city ordinance, it is very dangerous and should be stopped. The good people of the East End are certainly entitled to some protection in this matter. While they are averse to reporting violation of the ordinance, this will have to be done if the practice continues. As an extra precaution we would suggest the placing of warning signs along this and other streets, giving the speed limit and the penalty for exceeding it. If this is not done the life of some one will be the price.

NEW YORK LETTER

(From Our Regular Correspondent)

Gold Bricks—There was indignation in Democratic circles when your correspondent issued a warning to farmers against their funds in the wildcat bank schemes being formed under the Federal Farm Loan Act, and intimations that the warning was prompted by partisan prejudice; but it was a very real evil and the warning timely, as is now proved by the fact that the extent of the evil has compelled the Federal Farm Loan Board to issue from Washington a similar warning. Stock is being sold to farmers which amounts to little more than gold bricks. It is being sold in farm banks "when and if organized" and the board says that the "ifs" will in most instances probably turn to "won't mes." The other scheme, to which attention was called in this correspondence, has not yet been touched upon by the Board. It is a scheme whereby promoters sell stock to farmers in banks which have been approved by the Board, but sell it at twice the par value with a guarantee that the excess over par "less the cost of organization" will constitute the bank's surplus. Of course, this gives the promoters opportunity to appropriate to themselves, as "cost of organization" a sum equal to the total capital of the bank.

Federal Reserve Law—Addressing the Bankers' Convention, Frank A. Vanderlip, President of the National City Bank, said, "We all frankly understand why practically no bank has voluntarily subjected itself to the action of the Federal Reserve Law. It is no secret why state banks decline to become members of the Federal Reserve system. They are apprehensive of the sort of regulation which has recently been imposed upon national banks. They are not desirous of subjecting themselves to the sort of autocratic supervision under which the whole national banking system has grown ready. Had I chosen to discuss the Federal Reserve Act, I would have reached a conclusion that it embodies sound, fundamental principles too valuable, indeed to our financial life to be abandoned; the free working of which, however, has been entangled and hampered in its inception by political considerations and administrative attitude to such an extent as to endanger the success of what should rightly be the most important step ever taken in American banking." Mr. Vanderlip's words were enthusiastically received. The Nomenclature of the Federal Reserve Act, is of course, Comptroller John Williams, with his protector Crown Prince McAdoo.

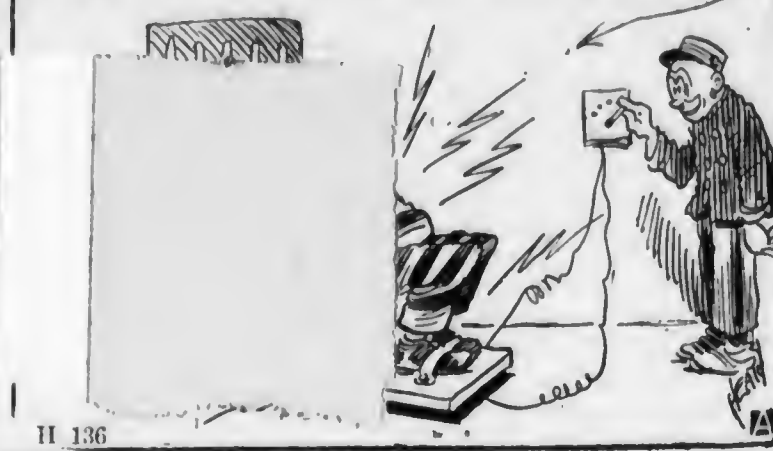

Impudent Miners—Impudent and presumptuous American citizens who have gone into Mexico, risking their lives and their capital, and in many instances the lives of their families, have had the presumption to disturb the serene and friendly proceedings of the Mexican conference by thrusting before it a record of Curranza's depredations, his confiscations and other outrages on Americans and their property interests. They actually demanded protection of life and property; provision for transportation of their products and foodstuffs and taxes which are neither prohibitive nor confiscatory. And they had the temerity to admit that they represented investments in Mexico amounting to upwards of $250,000,000. What they expected to accomplish by such rude interruption and such a confession it is difficult to conceive in view of the fact that all Americans of their class have been informed by the State Department, during this administration, that they are mere adventures, unpatriotically seeking to make money outside of their own country. Indeed, only last Saturday President Wilson referred to them as creatures so base that they desire "that kind of law and order which some investors in Mexico consider most to their advantage."

DYE CENSUS PREPARED BY GOVERNMENT TELLS OF OVER 8,000 DYE STUFFS

New York, October 6.—A dye census containing information about 8,000 dyestuffs, said to be the first publication of its kind distributed in any country, made public the other day at the national exposition of chemical industries, by Dr. Thomas H. Norton, dye expert of the Federal Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce.

More than 37,500 items of dye imports under 5,670 heads, which have come from Germany, Switzerland, England and France, appears in the census list, obtained by Dr. Norton's staff through co-operation with the Secretary of the Treasury. Dr. Norton said in one year the United States imported 25,700 tons of artificial dyes, of which 22,000 tons came from Germany, while today nearly all this is being obtained in this country from color products. Chemists, dyemen and manufacturers appear eager to scan the list. General distribution of the census will begin in about two weeks, it is said.

The enormous growth of the chemical industry in the United States, which is now reputed to be the second in the world, was illustrated in one case by J. P. Schoellkopf, Jr., of Buffalo, who said at a meeting of the American Chemical Society here that before the war his firm made 3,000,000 pounds of dyestuffs a year, while 97,000,000 pounds a year are now being turned out.

During a discussion of steel manufacture by the electric furnace method compared with the open hearth process, Prof. Joseph A. Richardson, of Lehigh University, predicted that in five years, when the electric furnace steel makers have required more experience, that method will supplant the old one.

A resolution directing the society to ascertain if American manufacturers could not supply the Bureau of Printing and Engraving at Washington with the dyes which it is still contracting for in Germany, was adopted.

Alcohol, used in the manufacture of high explosives, is now being made from Louisiana molasses, or blackstrap, as it is called. So great has been the call for this sticky commodity that the price is now about four times what it was two years ago.

A ton of Panache logwood, which is the best, is worth $290.

IT'S SURPRISING That So Many Maysville People Fail To Recognize Kidney Weakness.

Are you a back ache victim? Suffer twinges; headaches, dizzy spells? Go to bed tired—get up tired? It's surprising how few suspect the kidneys. It's surprising how few know what to do. Kidney trouble needs kidney treatment.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only. Have convinced Maysville people of their merit. Here's a Maysville case; Maysville testimony.

Kidney sufferers hereabouts should read it. Mrs. John Burns, Maysville, says: "I was subject to severe spells of backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble. They came on every three or six months and at times I was confined to bed and almost helpless. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me quick benefit. When I have had slight return attacks of backache, Doan's Kidney Pills have never failed to quickly check the trouble."

OVER SEVEN YEARS LATER. Mrs. Burns said: "The statement I gave before praising Doan's Kidney Pills still holds good." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Burns has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props. Buffalo, N. Y.

A piece of bog in the western cove of Highland, Bridgton, Maine, about large enough to make a little island, has broken off and is floating around the head of the lake. Trees from 12 to 14 feet are growing on this "floating island" and it is proving a menace to the many craft on the lake.

The bark of black oak or "yellow oak," as it is often called on account of the color of the inner bark, is now used for dye-making.

A WOMAN'S APPEAL

To all knowing sufferers of rheumatism, whether muscular or of the joints, strained limbs, backache, pains in the kidneys or neuralgia pains, to write to her for a long treatment which has repeatedly cured all of these affections. She feels it her duty to send it to all sufferers FREE. You cure yourself at home, as thousands will testify—no change of climate being necessary. This simple discovery banishes the pain from the blood, loosens the stiffened joints, purifies the blood and brightens the eyes, giving activity and tone to the whole system. SILVER'S PARTY TO SUPPORT HUGHES AND McCOMBS

New York, October 6.—The American party, organized in 1914 by William Silver, former Governor of New York, plans to take an active part in the present campaign. It was announced here tonight. Mr. Silver asserts that this party has definitely decided to support the entire Democratic ticket until it is "double crossed" recently by Democratic leaders who were entrusted with petitions to be filed and failed to file them.

Now, he says, the party will support the National Republican ticket and a part of the state Republican ticket. William P. McCombs, nominee of the Democrats for the United States Senate, will be favored, however.

THERE SHOULD BE NO ACTION UNDER PRESSURE, UNDER DICTATION.

"We have one priceless treasure in this country, and that is the reign of good judgment after public discussion. In the long history of the people, victory after victory has been won over tyranny and force. We have a free press, we have a free form of public discussion, to the end that there may be a general understanding of our activities and a general appreciation of what is necessary to the improvement of our conditions. We may disagree about this measure or that, but we have confidence in the public judgment in the long run. Hence there is one thing which we must always maintain, and that is that there shall be no action on the part of our elected representatives, taken under pressure, under dictation. We must know what the facts are and what justice requires."—Mr. Hughes in his speech at Portland, Maine.

HAS GREATEST YEAR—YOUTHVILLE AND NASHVILLE ANNUAL REPORT SHOWS BIG GAINS

Louisville, Ky., October 6.—The Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company closed the greatest year in its history on June 30, according to the report of President Milton H. Smith, at the annual stockholders' meeting here today. Its gross operating revenues for the fiscal year were $60,317,993, an increase of $3,711,978 over the previous year, and $411,526 over the year ending June 30, 1914, the best previous record.

The net income was $12,953,849, an increase of $9,093,707 over the previous year, and equal to 19.38 per cent of its capitalization of $72,000,000. The corporate surplus at the close of the year was $53,365,314, as compared with $44,986,557. The report dealt exclusively with figures and was barren of comment.

The stockholders made but one change in the directorate. George H. Elliott, of Wilmington, N. C., was chosen to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William J. Dickinson, of New York.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mr. Alry, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell."

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good. I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it.

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

"LITTLE GIRL NEXT DOOR" GETS STRONG ENDORSEMENT

Letter from Dr. John W. Scott,
Member of Lexington, Ky., Commission on Social Hygiene:

September 28, 1916.
Mr. Slaughter Sparks, M.R.,
Strand Theater, Lexington, Ky.

I cannot express too strongly my belief in the wholesome effect upon the public of the photoplay, "The Little Girl Next Door," now being exhibited at the Strand Theater in this city.

The graphic portrayal which it presents of the entirely cold blooded and heartless business interests which fosters prostitution and fattened upon it in much the same way in the small city as in the large one cannot but impress thoughtful people with the folly of tolerating its existence.
The lesson it carries for young women if taken to heart should save many from lifelong shame and misery.
While it is not possible to know just how effective this will prove upon such women and while some of the scenes are necessarily unpleasant there is nevertheless such skillful handling of the subject that the suggestive features are reduced to a minimum. Indeed I believe that the film has less to gratify prurient tastes than has the average photoplay or at least many which appeal to the public solely as amusement.

Very truly yours,
JOHN W. SCOTT.

LEITCHFIELD MAN TIPPED TO REPLACE H. C. KEOH

Frankfort, Ky., October 6.—Dr. W.
S. Clark, of Leitchfield, will be the next superintendent of the Feeble Minded Institute, is the tip here tonight. Dr. Clark came to this city today and visited the institution, stating to those in authority there that he had been selected for the place.
He is regarded as one of the best physicians in the Fourth Congressional District. Dr. H. C. Kehoe, whom he succeeded, will leave the institution October 15 for Fort Meyer, Fla., where he will spend the winter hunting and fishing and will return to Flemings-burg to practice his profession in the spring. He is regarded by the Franklin County Medical Society as one of the ablest, if not the ablest, man who has ever been superintendent at the institution, and at their recent meeting resolutions were adopted unanimously endorsing him. County Health Officer C. E. Homan gave him a separate endorsement.

Oak is the most suitable wood for carving, on account of its durability mahogany and teak are also desirable, are generally chosen.
